Better Than You - paul mcwade

Orange juice splotch on the floor

Takin up less than a single tile.

G

What long last I know for sure

Bb Em/A#

someone will come to clean it up

Four walls impose conformity

I only ask you people what is normalcy

Because in my world

I'm never left alone.

G G# A A#

It's been two years since we last spoke

I finally have something to say

I was never any good at life but

I'm still so much better than you

Em+ A# Em7 G Bb E8 8x solo better than you

Em+A# Em7 G Bb E8
You're still talking through me blurring the edge of madness
Please, please, please don't interfere
With my enforced tranquility.

You can compete but you've got no game

Can you feel the smile run across my face

You can't score. So what's the point.

Doesn't that makes you more insane than I am.

Chorus

Em+A# Em7 G Bb E8 repeat to fade
better than you
