

E7
unrelenting endless days of amusement exaggerated tales abound

D7
off to fight your holy phantoms

E7
losing time signatures at every turn

C
champion of mediocrity

D
Lives an endless dream

C
Never amounting to be more than

E7
a broken soul

paradigms and endless lines intensity rolls within your mind snakes and arrows for only the hardcore losing fan's rush at every door first a hundred shows then a hundred more to go you still chose free will for your broken soul

lyrics sheets that help you cheat an identity when honesty is the only thing you need

everyone is a reflection of you curious yet dissatisfied because you are a withering broken soul

motion and approach mend the miss stepped dance reinventions in the air take away the breath of life timeless devotion rolls through the valley and rocks you to sleep a million years ago when your soul was broken by accident or was it by design till you stopped riding and finally got on with your life

Chorus

That's what I want to be when I grow up
