

Em
close your eyes and start to dream
C9 C7
In a wheel chair since seventeen
B
you sit and wonder
Em
if you are forgotten

Em
Dream of waves that meet the sea
C9 C7
endless smiles and energy
where the broken and the old
Em
are never cold

C D roll alone
G F# B
roll alone in your dreams
C D roll alone to the sea Esus E
roll alone

Em
In a trance you stand the craft
C9 C7
You don't care, you lost your hat
through the porthole side
Em
a wave rolls by

Em
tugging boats and golden yachts
C9 C7
trim the jib until it's taught
The wind blows, it can tip
Em
most anything

chorus

Em
you love the sea so dear to you C9 C7
hallucinate so deep and blue
A level field where no one
Em
walks on water

Em
a sudden gale and ice cold spray
C9 C7
wake you from this game you play
you sit'n wonder how'd I
Em
turn out this way

Em
broken bones and missing toes
C9 C7
no longer get you up to go
dreaming in your wheel chair
Em
by the window
