

E
I should have quit you long time ago
B
I wouldn't be here my children

A                    E                    The Lemon song – led zeppelin
Oooh, oh yeah long time ago.
A                    E
Down on this killin' floor.

E
I should have listened baby to my second mind
B
Every time I go away and leave you darling

A                    E
I should have listened baby to my second mind
A                    E
You send me the blues way down the line.

SOLO

Babe
B
oh my my my

A                    E
treat me right baby
A                    E
...take it down a little bit

People tellin' me baby can't be satisfied;
But they never hurt you in my eyes said people worry I can't keep you satisfied
B
Let me tell you baby,

A                    E
They try to worry me baby
A                    E
You ain't nothin' but a two-bit, no-good jive.

E
Went to sleep last night, worked as hard as I can,
Bring home my money, you take my money, give it to another man;

I wouldn't be here with all my troubles

A                    E
I should have quit you, baby, such a long time ago,
A                    E
down on this killing floor.

E
Squeeze me baby, till the juice runs down my leg
B
The way you squeeze my lemon,

A                    E
Squeeze me baby, till the juice runs down my leg
A                    E
I..I'm gonna fall right out of bed, yeah.

Hey!    Baby baby baby...
I'm gonna leave my children

A                    E
A                    E
down on this killin' floor!
